

Address: 131 Huron Street

Legal Description: Part Lot 59, Plan 20

Designation By-law: 43-88

By-Law Designation Date: March 7, 1988

Date of Construction: 1866-1867

Architectural Style: Gothic Revival

Architectural Description: one and one half storey red brick with yellow brick trim; three Gothic peaks; gable roof; first storey; left side; window; centre gable; three sided bay window with yellow brick quoins at corners of bay and yellow brick voussoirs over the windows; rectangular one pane over one pane window in each section of the bay window; hip roof on bay; enclosed entrance porch with a double door; side lights with paneling below; an ogee arch with small paned windows above the door; a gable roof with dentil trim under the roof. The porch is quite ornate but is not part of the designated features of the house. Right side; the window appears to be altered from the original; it is a small two part window; second storey; left gable; window under peak; finial at peak; centre gable two over two paned rectangular windows; brackets under the eaves; right gable; two over two paned rectangular window; finial in the peak.

This house was at one time the residence of local merchants, John J. Clark and Samuel Street Fuller.